April Fool's Day Silent Auction – These items are no joke!

DECATUR, Ga. – Looking forward to the Atlanta Braves' Opening Day? Tickets to the Braves home opener will be up for auction at the Junior League of DeKalb County's Giving Gala on April 1, 2011 at the Old Courthouse on the Square located in historic downtown Decatur.

Giving Gala is a silent auction held to support JLD's charitable efforts. The event's theme is "Joker's Wild" and JLD invites community members to try their luck at casino tables and also participate in the silent auction to support DeKalb's women and children.

Just a few of the fabulous items up for bid include:

- Atlanta Braves tickets to Opening Day – Great Seats!
- MicroDermabrasion sessions.
- Photography session.
- Theater tickets including, Dad's Garage, Whole World Improv Theater, 7 Stages Theatre, ART Station, and Center for Puppetry Arts.
- Fitness, boot camp, and yoga passes. Also a zip line pass for the north Georgia mountains!
- Relaxation and massage certificates.
- Restaurant gift cards.
- Organization services.

Giving Gala starts at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $50 and may be purchased online at www.jldekalb.org. Sponsorship packages are also available. 2011 Giving Gala Sponsors include Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, Parkers on Ponce, and O'Brien Productions.

All proceeds from this event will support JLD's community projects such as Mini Grants for Excellence in Teaching program, which offers DeKalb County elementary and middle school teachers funds to supplement projects in the classroom. Community support of Junior League efforts have continued to aid in keeping our doors open and providing hope to DeKalb County, especially to women and children in need.

The Junior League of DeKalb County, Inc. is in its 76th year of service and promotes voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.
