Junior League of DeKalb Announces 2013-14 Executive Board

The Junior League of DeKalb County, Inc. (JLD) proudly announces its Executive Board for the 2013-14 league year, led by President Susannah Scott. Scott will serve a one-year term beginning June 1, 2013-May 13, 2014.

“I am excited about the upcoming year with Junior League of DeKalb County, Inc. as we continue to focus on improving nutrition and combating obesity within DeKalb County. We have a very strong group of women leading us in our efforts this year, and I am thrilled to be working with them and our community partners to build on the programs we provide to our community,” says Scott.

Scott joined JLD in 2009 and has served as Technology Assistant Chair, Arrangements & Training Chair, Secretary and President-Elect. Scott has also served on the Board of the League of Women Voters of DeKalb County in the capacities of Director, President-Elect and President. During her tenure as Director, she focused on producing voter guides for DeKalb County Citizens. In addition to her work with JLD, Scott is a Contracts Specialist with Iron Mountain Intellectual Property Management, Inc., a division of Iron Mountain, Inc.

About the Junior League of DeKalb County, Inc.

JLD is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. JLD members direct their volunteer efforts to the current community impact focus area, Improving Nutrition and Combating Obesity in DeKalb County, through hands-on volunteer activities, as well as collaborative efforts with other community organizations. Additionally, JLD provides a supportive environment for training tomorrow's female community leaders while enabling our members to forge lasting friendships.
