"We are very excited to bring Bargain Bazaar to the City of Decatur and thank First Baptist Church of Decatur for welcoming our event," said Sarah Woodward, Bargain Bazaar Committee Chair. "Both our membership and the community look forward to this annual sale that benefits all of DeKalb County through our charitable outreach. We hope the community will come see what Bargain Bazaar has to offer and find something special to take home!"

Bargain Bazaar is the Junior League of DeKalb County's largest fundraiser and supports various community projects including A Space of Our Own, which has provided bedding and other items to more than 400 DeKalb County foster children, and Mini-Grants for Excellence in Education which provides funds to DeKalb County teachers for supplemental classroom projects.
