Women leaders in DeKalb County will gather for a virtual conference networking, learning and building capacity

Decatur, Georgia – February 11, 2021 - Join the Junior League of DeKalb County, DeKalb Section National Council of Negro Women and the Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce EME group for our 3rd Annual Women Mean Business, a virtual 3-part leadership conference. This year's theme is "Virtually, She Can". The conference will take place over three months, February 27th, March 27th, and April 24th from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Executives, emerging professionals, business owners and community volunteers are invited for mornings of networking, professional development and capacity building.

The cost to attend is $25 for each individual session or $75 for the full conference which includes an amazing virtual experience of phenomenal speakers, giveaways, swag and the opportunity to network with more than 100 women locally and nationally.
