FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Five Metro Atlanta Area Junior Leagues Unite to Train Each of its Leadership Teams

July 18, 2015 – Atlanta, GA Women leaders from five area volunteer organizations convened earlier today for a combined leadership training at the Atlanta Speech School, located at 3160 Northside Parkway NW, Atlanta, GA. Members of the Board of Directors and Leadership Teams from the Junior League of Atlanta, Junior League of Cobb-Marietta, Junior League of DeKalb County, Junior League of Douglas County, and the Junior League of Gwinnett and North Fulton Counties gathered to share ideas and enhance their skills to better serve their respective communities. Topics of training included Leadership 101, Leadership 601 and Conflict Management, Personal Branding, Project Management, and Social Media Engagement.

Speakers and trainers were notable women from a variety of backgrounds and industries, including Ms. Anna Cablik, Owner and President of Anatek, Inc. and Anasteel; Ms. Charlotte King, President/Creative Director of Snowden & King Marketing Communications; Ms. Ginny Nickles, Director of Mission Mobilization and Innovation at Peachtree Presbyterian Church; Ms. Ursula Reynolds, PhD Graduate Program Manager at Georgia Tech; Ms. Charlotte Ros Terrell, Talent Management Consultant in Human Resources at Southern Company, and keynote speaker Ms. Kimberlyn Daniel, CEO of YWCA of Greater Atlanta. Ms. Daniel stressed the importance of equality and inclusion across gender and racial disparities in today's business and non-profit worlds.

About the Junior League of DeKalb County, Inc.

The Junior League of DeKalb County (JLD) is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. JLD members direct their volunteer efforts to the current community impact focus area, Improving Nutrition and Combating Obesity in DeKalb County, through hands-on volunteer activities, as well as collaborative efforts with other community organizations. Additionally, JLD provides a supportive environment for training tomorrow's female community leaders while enabling our members to forge lasting friendships.
